Rachel Baron is selected for the TEEAM High School Teacher Excellence Award for 2011-2012

BALTIMORE, Maryland, January 2, 2012 – Technology & Engineering Educators Association of Maryland (TEEAM) announces the selection of Rachel Baron for the High School Teacher Excellence Award.

This award is given to the high school teacher in the State of Maryland who best demonstrates excellence in Technology Education. This year's Excellence award winner is Rachel Baron, Technology Education Instructor at Easton High School in Talbott County.

Rachel's background includes being a teacher leader in Maryland which includes being co-advisor for Skills USA. She was also on the Assessment Development Forum for ITEEA EbD. Rachel is a lead training instructor for Foundations of Technology for Talbot County. Ms. Baron maintains professional member status in several organizations including ITEEA, Kappa Delta Pi, and Epsilon Pi Tau.

Rachel Baron will be recognized at the TEEAM Donald Maley Awards reception on Thursday February 23rd, 2012 at the Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Lab in Laurel, Maryland.

We are honored to present Rachel Baron with the Outstanding High School Teacher Excellence Award.

Ms. Baron will go on to represent Maryland at the 2012 International Technology & Engineering Educators Association Conference in Long Beach, California on March 16, 2012.
