TEEAM Secretary Report

Name: Kim Miller
Office: Secretary
Date: January 14, 2013

The meeting was called to order by President, Jason Bullerman, at 5:14pm. New officers as well as returning officers were introduced and welcomed. The minutes from the October 19, 2012 meeting were read by Kim Miller and accepted.

Kathleen Setzer, Treasurer, presented the treasurer's report which included a TEEAM total budget of 15, 775.77.

The President's (Jason Bullerman) report included the planning of the Awards Banquet with a tentative date of February 21, 2013 and an inclement weather date of February 28, 2013. Baltimore Museum of Industry is the first choice and then the Engineer's Club (waiting for a response). He is still trying to keep within a $3000.00 budget.

President-Elect, Chris Buckler was absent, therefore no report.

Amy Gensemer, Past-President's activities included finalizing the recipients for the TEEAM Award for HS Teacher of Excellence. She also reported on the planning stages for the upcoming 2013 TEEAM Conference. Contact with the Maryland Association of Science Teachers was made in order to promote TEEAM and increase attendance. Amy also officially handed over the production of the TEEAM newsletter to Chris Putnam.

The Vice President's report was presented by Karen Taylor-Boone. Her first challenge will be January 12, 2013. All coaches' workshops were attended.
